US POSTAL SERVICE

The United States Postal service has always been there. “Neither sleet nor snow,” right? That card from Grandma, that gift for a milestone birthday, the medication you needed right away. Your latest batch of brownies. The United States Postal Service and our hard-working team of letter carriers are there... in places great and small... when you can't be. With a familiar face, a caring hand, and reliability, you can count on. The United States Postal Service

TIDE STAIN STICK RADIO AD

Listen, I'm not usually the kind of person who is swayed by ads. Believe me. But unscented Tide is perfect for my family's sensitive skin. Unscented Tide. Try It today.

Lifestyle News Comedy (written for Listendot via Vox.com Demos)

Who looks at their phone too much? Hello? I'm currently raising my hand. Anyone have any suggestions? Emmy Winner Jason Sudeklas does. He suggests magic. Magic, you say! Magic, I say! So he decided that anytime he had... the urge, or the feeling, or the need to look at his phone, he would pull out a deck of cards. He's been doing tricks since he was 12. Sorry. He's been doing magic tricks since he was 12. Words are important. So, what's your magic? What would you do?
